

SELECTION OF SUPPLEMENTARY BOOKS AND MATERIALS

POLICY:

The District recognizes that each student is unique and that all students have differing educational needs. As such, the school media center is an integral part of the District's efforts to meet the students' different learning needs as well as stimulate a variety of interests.

Materials selected for both the school media center along with individual classrooms will represent the interest, vocabulary, maturity and ability levels of all students within the school served. The media center will also provide a range of material on many levels of difficulty offering different points of view.

Responsibility for selection of media center materials shall be delegated to professionally trained personnel and/or other licensed staff members who know curriculum, teaching methods and the individual differences and interests of the students.
